

GRAND JURORS HAND DOWN 3 INDICTMENTS

Three indictments were handed up by the Adams County grand jury at noon today.

True bills were found on counts of burglary, larceny and malicious mischief against William Robert Warner, Chester Merle Strickler and Harvey Edward Smith, all of York. True bills on driving while under the influence were returned against Harry A. Lear, 213 Chambersburg St., and Raymond W. Kopp, Hanover.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter told the court the grand jury had "almost completed" hearings on three other indictments and would present them, plus additional indictments against other defendants this afternoon.

Tawney Is Foreman

Because of the work of sound proofing the main court room, the grand jury met first in Court Room No. 2 in the basement and then moved to the law library. The court went to the law library at noon to receive the indictments completed up to that moment.

David Tawney, 118 W. Middle St., postal clerk, is foreman for the jury. Two of the 24 jurors were excused his morning. Maurice W. Feeser, Littlestown, and Geraldine Brodbeck, McSherrytown.

Warner, Strickler and Smith had not had hearings before the justice of the peace prior to their case coming before the grand jury. The court however permitted preparation of a bill of indictment for presentation to the jury upon petition of the district attorney this morning.

Viewers Report

Approval was also given by the court for presentation of a bill of indictment to the grand jury against Delbert E. Campbell, Cumberland, Md., charged with burglary and larceny. The district attorney explained that no hearing had been held before a justice of the peace for Campbell

GIDEON AUTO IS FOUND IN WASHINGTON

The 1960 Valiant sedan, used by William Jarvis and William Gideon, 16-year-old local youths who have been missing from their homes since August 1, was found in a parking lot in Washington, D. C., last Friday, it was learned today.

Mrs. Sara Gideon, mother of the Gideon youth, received a call from the Washington police informing her that the vehicle, registered in her name, had been in the C. and S. parking lot, 1724 G St., NW, since August 2. The lot owner, after the car had been there 10 days, became suspicious, and informed the metropolitan police last Friday. He was quoted as saying the boys "will be back to pick it up."

The Gettysburg Times learned today that the Washington police had no notice on record concerning the lost car.

Goes To Claim Car

According to Mrs. Chester Jarvis, mother of the other youth, a set of keys to her home in Seven Stars and a pair of dark glasses were the only objects found in the car. Mrs. Gideon left this morning for Washington to claim the auto.

It was also learned from Mrs. Jarvis that the boys had registered and spent the night of August 1 at the YWCA, located at 1736 G St., NW. When a Times reporter queried the "Y" by phone this morning, he was told that the boys had not registered there, and, if they were 16, they had to have written consent from their parents.

The metropolitan police are continuing their investigation in the hope of finding a clue as to the whereabouts of the boys or by what means or transportation they left Washington, if they did leave the city.

American Nickel Cobalt Plant Is Seized By Cuba

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ HAVANA (AP)—The Castro regime has taken over the Freeport Sulphur Company's 75-million-dollar nickel and cobalt plant in Cuba. The American-owned plant has been idle since March, when the government put a heavy export tax on its output.

Announcement Sunday of Freeport's Moa Bay Mining Co. heightened fears in private business circles concerning the fate of 75 million dollars worth of other American mining properties still under private management.

Give No Reason

President Osvaldo Dorticos announced the intervention—which can mean anything from token supervision to outright control—but gave no reason. It was expected, however, the government eventually would say it had taken over the plant to protect workers' jobs, claiming the management had abandoned it.

In New York, the Freeport company said it would take all possible steps under Cuban and international law to protect its legal rights.

Two youths were injured when their car skidded off the Caledonia-Hunters Run Rd.

The three accidents were investigated within less than two hours Saturday night by state police from the local sub-station.

Pair "Very Lucky"

Police said John J. Plunkert, 18, Hanover R. 1, and a passenger in his car, Larry Lee Miller, 19, of Hanover, were "exceedingly lucky" when they escaped unscathed from a crash three miles east of Littlestown on the Hanover Rd. Saturday night at 9:40 o'clock.

According to the officers, Plunkert was attempting to make a left turn and had slowed, with his signal lights blinking for the turn. Lester Lee Barnes, 16, Littlestown R. 2, according to police, was also traveling west on the road, passed another car and smashed into the rear of the Plunkert vehicle as it turned.

The Plunkert car spun around from the impact, hit guard rails, uprooting the posts, and teetered on the edge of a 15-foot drop, with only the guard rail cables holding the car. The gasoline tank, ruptured when the car struck the posts, sent a sheet of flame over the vehicle. Plunkert and Miller were able to leap to safety without injury, police said. Had the guard cable not held, the car would have rolled down the embankment possibly trapping the youths in the blazing wreckage, police said.

Littlestown firemen responded to the alarm and extinguished the blaze which burned out the interior of the auto. Police estimated damage at $350 to Barnes' auto and $350 to Plunkert's vehicle. (Continued On Page 3)

25th Anniversary Of Social Security
HARRISBURG (AP)—Social security laws need to be improved to meet demands of the times, says Gov. Lawrence. In a statement marking the 25th anniversary of enactment of the Social Security System, the governor said Sunday the laws need updating because of the cost-of-living increase. He added:

"Public assistance grants are inadequate by as much as 40 percent. High medical costs and disproportionately high rental charges present further problems which must be met."

Lawrence said that more than $2,800,000,000 has been spent on public assistance and child welfare programs in Pennsylvania since Social Security became law.

Sleichter Repeats As Mt. Union Champ

Dick Sleichter, Gettysburg Country Club pro, successfully defended his title by winning the third annual Mt. Union Open Gold tournament Sunday with a five-under-par 69.

In the 1958 tournament Sleichter tied for first place but lost in the playoff. Last year he won the title.

HARPER-GROSS NUPTIALS READ ON SATURDAY

Miss Maxine Delores Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gross, Water St., East Berlin, became the bride of Pfc. H. Lee Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagaman, Hanover R. 4, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Harold Stoudt, at Trinity Lutheran Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a waltz-length gown of white net and lace over taffeta. Her fitted bodice was adorned with tiers of ruffled lace. Her rounded neckline of lace had insertions of net. The bride's only jewelry was a choker.

Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a detachable orchid and the streamers were entwined with split carnations.

Maid Of Honor
Miss Judy Mae Gross, her only attendant, who acted as maid of honor for her sister, wore a powder blue waltz-length gown of net over taffeta. Her gown was flattered by a cummerbund, puffed sleeves and rounded neckline. Her white veil was attached to a big white bow which adorned her head. She carried pink roses and white carnations.

The church was decorated with ferns, palms and arrangements of gladioli and pompons. Gerald Mummert, organist at Jefferson Trinity Lutheran Church, played the recital preceding the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches. Vocalist was Carl Messinger, East Berlin, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Best Man
Eugene Wolfe, East Berlin R. 2, served as best man for the groom. Ushers were Irvin Gross, East Berlin R. 2, uncle of the bride, and Richard Sterner, York, uncle of the groom. The ushers pinned corsages of multicolored sweet heart roses on the mothers of both the bride and groom.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church social room for the wedding party and guests. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Atlantic City the bride will reside at the home of her parents until her husband is discharged from the U. S. Army. After reporting to Fort Dix, N. J., he will be sent overseas.

The bride, a graduate of East Berlin High School, is employed by Lau's Variety Store, West King St., East Berlin. The groom attended East Berlin High School and has continued his education in the service.

Guests were present from York, Chambersburg, Hanover, Red Lion and Dillsburg.

The production of television sets in the United States jumped from 10,000 in 1946 to 7 1/2 million in 1959.

BUS TEETERS ON BRIDGE'S EDGE AFTER CRASH; 2 DIE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Transcontinental Trailways spokesman says one of its buses carrying 34 persons which was hit by an auto "probably would have teetered into the river if it weren't for the heavy motor in the back." Two passengers in the car were killed and the driver injured.

The driver of the car, Robert Smith, 23, of Harrisburg, was recovering today in Polyclinic Hospital. He was reported in satisfactory condition with a possible fractured left arm, internal injuries and cuts.

Officials, meanwhile, continued an investigation to determine if any charges would be filed.

Two Killed
Killed in the accident Saturday night were Ronald McCabe, a marine home on leave, and Martin Orris, both 21, of Harrisburg.

Police said Smith's car struck the rear of another auto, then careened across a medial barrier on the four-lane M. Harvey Taylor Bridge and struck the oncoming bus.

The bus, bound from New York to Los Angeles, crashed through a guard rail, its front stopping precariously near the edge of the bridge which spans the Susquehanna River some 75 feet below.

Out Through Window
The driver, Frank Senko, 43, of Carnegie, had just taken over the wheel from another operator after the bus made a stop at a Harrisburg terminal.

Senko and the 33 passengers were lifted from the bus through side windows because the front of the 23-ton vehicle was so near the edge of the bridge. The operation was completed in a matter of minutes.

The driver and the passengers escaped serious injury. Those hurt were treated at Harrisburg hospitals and released.

A car traveling behind struck the rear of the bus but no one was hurt. Those in the auto ahead of Smith's car suffered only minor injuries. They continued across the bridge and called police and ambulances to the scene.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Badly Cut Up: The opposition are just now divided into two intensely hostile wings—the one supporting Lincoln and the other Bell, for President. Ex-President Fillmore is about to stump New York State for Bell. Crittenden, of Kentucky, is about to do the same in that State. In Philadelphia, the Bell men have nominated a full City Ticket, and have already put forth candidates in three of the five districts. The friends of Bell calculate on polling 100,000 votes in this State, which will be amply sufficient to beat the Rail-Splitter.

Agricultural Fair At Bendersville:
We learn that the largest preparations are making at Bendersville for the Agricultural Fair, to take place there on the 25th, 26th and 27th days of September next. The arrangements are in the hands of go-ahead-tive gentlemen, who will not fail of doing their whole duty in every particular, in order that the Fair
may be a highly successful one.
The location is delightful and every convenience will be afforded. We trust that the farms and the machine shops of the county will be creditably represented on the occasion. Hon Edward McPherson will deliver the address.

Mail Change: An important change has been effected in the Mail arrangement between this place and Bendersville. Hereafter we will have three mails a week—on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The new arrangement went into operation on Thursday.

The Labor Bureau: The Labor Bureau at Washington appointed a "labor reformer" named Judd bird. Those whose recommended him are, with one exception, Republicans and Secretary Teiler is at the head of the list. The appointment has been revoked by Secretary Lamar, no doubt to the disgust of Judd's Republican supporters.

Cholera Reports: The ravages of the Cholera in Spain are unabated, and the panic at Marselles is increasing. The supposed case reported at Bristol, England, turns out to have been genuine, some alarm is therefore felt in London. The serious aspect of the Bristol case for us is in the fact that when the disease once gets into England it has made a long step in our direction. The total of deaths from cholera in Spain
thus far is reported to be 50,000.

"Dear Beaver, Don't Talk."

the Grand Army encampment at Gettysburg, favored the erection of Confederate monuments along with those of the Union army on the battlefield, declaring that
"the war ended at Appomattox."
This is all very well for General Beaver. But if he will talk so, in disregard of Brother Quay's command, how are Quay and Cooper to run him for Governor on the issue of "the rebel brigades in the saddle?"

Today's Talk
"THESE TOO SHALL PASS"
You who think you are experiencing troubles that seem unmountable, just think of the troubles you had long ago that have disappeared like the morning mist. Think of this. "These too shall pass."
The great of this Earth also had troubles they thought would never pass—but they did. We must school ourselves in courage, patience and fortitude.
Here is a thought. We all have growing pains, no matter at what time of life. Abraham Lincoln in his career suffered the depths of despair and melancholy. When he was defeated for the U. S.
Senate by Stephen A. Douglas he thought his political career was over. As a matter of fact, it was only just beginning. People began to discover his hidden greatness and to scent his ability to overcome gross difficulties—problems greater than faced by any President up to this time.
Each of us in our everyday experience feels burdened by seeming troubles. "These too shall pass." As with the great—and with all of us—with courage and patience nearly every problem in time fades away.
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Keeping Still!"

LIVING MONUMENTS
Our children are our monuments.
The little ones we leave behind.
If they are good and brave and kind
And labor here with true intents,
Our lives and work perpetuate
Far more than marble tablets great.
Far rather would I pass away
And leave a sturdy son of mine Whom I had taught to love the fine,
The just and honest, in his day
To serve the world with courage
bold,
Than have my life on granite told.
I'd rather feel when death is near
That in my children I shall live;
No monument of stone would give Me greater glory, year by year,
Than sons and daughters treading on
In truth and honor when I'm gone.
Who leaves a study son on earth,
A noble daughter, sweet and pure,
Has monuments that long endure.
He needs no shaft to prove his worth;
The luster of his children's deeds
Are all the monuments he needs.

MANTEL FAILS TO RUN GROUND BALL; JERKED
By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees' $60,000 per year center fielder, is in trouble with Manager Casey Stengel. Just how seriously was known until tonight's crucial game with the first-place Baltimore Orioles at Yankee Stadium.
Stengel yanked Mantle in the second game of Sunday's doubleheader against Washington for committing the most grievous of on-field offenses — not running out a ground ball.
But the Yankee manager refused to say what action he planned to take.
"I just don't know yet," Casey said after the game. "I haven't told him about it yet. But I'm sick of watching him not run."
15-Inning Tilt
The Yanks lost the twinbill, 5-4 and 6-3 in 15 innings, and with it first place in the American League. The Orioles and Chicago White Sox are tied for first and Stengel's erstwhile leaders are one percentage point back in third place.
In the sixth inning, Mantle topped a boundary toward third which the Senator infield turned into an inning-ending doubleplay that also killed a Yankee rally that had tied the score 1-1. Most observers felt the swift Mantle could easily have beaten the relay throw to first base.
As Mantle waited for one of his mates to bring his glove, Stengel pulled him out.
Casey is Angry
"I took him out because he didn't run out the ball," growled Stengel. "In my opinion I know damn well he didn't run it out.
There's no excuse for it unless a man is hurt."
Mantle said later that he thought there were two out. He wore a sheepish expression when he came into the Yankee dressing quarters. He said he wasn't hurt.
Mantle's teammates, hiding behind a cloak of anonymity, sided with Stengel.
"Maybe it'll wake him up,"
said one. "If he is hurt, that's one thing. But I don't think he's hurt and he'd certainly have beaten out that ball if he'd run. When you're making $60,000 you just can't do that in front of a crowd like that."

FRICK BACKS LA AMERICAN LEAGUE SPOT
NEW YORK (AP)—The American League, at least unofficially hitting for a chance to move into Los Angeles should the National League return to New York, has the backing of baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.
Emphasizing that he was only stating his personal opinion, Frick declared that Los Angeles should be designated open territory, the same classification applied to
New York.
Frick's statement came in answer to Dan Topping, co-owner of the New York Yankees of the American League, who asked why Los Angeles should be closed to the AL if New York is open to the NL. The question and answer came at the Yankees' Old-Timers Dinner Saturday night.
Topping indicated that he was disturbed about a newspaper item which said he had disrupted expansion plans in an earlier query about the possibility of an American League team in Los Angeles.
The majors, in laying the Continental League to rest, at least for the moment, recently announced a plan in which four of the Continental franchises would be absorbed to make the American and National 10-team leagues.
One of the two franchises to be taken over by the National League presumably would be New York.
New York has been accepted as open territory, at Frick's instance, since the National shifted its Brooklyn and New York franchises to the West Coast. With Los Angeles now considered restricted territory, the American League would need National League permission to move into that city.

edly has been in the hospital since swept a doubleheader from the dump them back in last place.

Dick Ellsworth (6-8) bested Gene Conley (7-9) in the opener. The Cubs scored one run on rookie Ron Santo's homer and the other on an error by Lee Walls and singles
by Frank Thomas and Sam Tay-

Doubles by Bobby Del Greco

Dallas Green his sixth loss in nine decisions.

FEARS FATAL CRASH; QUILTS
BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS,
Utah (AP)—America's speed

Monte, Calif., got his car up to about 320 miles per hour but felt he was losing control. So he quit rather than chance a fatal crash in his try for the magical 400

On Aug. 1, Salt Lake City mechanic Athol Graham got his car up to about 300 m.p.h. when he lost control, crashed and was killed. Thompson was watching at the time.
Sunday Thompson said he was unable to maintain even traction when he started to accelerate with his 3,000-horsepower Challenger I on these western Utah flats.
The car started to swing from side to side.
"I knew I would lose control if I continued to accelerate," he said. He was obviously disappointed. "This year," he said,
"I've got the horsepower that it takes for 400 miles per hour or better. But I've got to have control."

Orioles And White Sox Are Tied For AL Lead As Yanks Lose Pair Sunday To Nats

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Baltimore and the Chicago White Sox are deadlocked for the American League lead, but it's Casey Stengel who's fit to be tied.

An angry Stengel, his New York Yankees reduced to third place a half-game back after losing a double-header Sunday to the Washington Senators, sent Mickey Mantle to the showers in the sixth inning of the second game when the top-bracket center fielder failed to run out a ground ball.

The slow bouncer was converted into a double play and ended a rally by the Yankees, who had just tied it 1-1 and also had just lost slugger Roger Maris through injury.

Almost 8 Hours

"I took him out because he didn't run," Stengel snapped. "I'm tired of seeing him not run. If he can't run, he should tell me and I wouldn't put him out there."

Mantle, who singled twice in seven trips for his part of the record 7-hour and 58-minute twin-bill, denied that there was anything wrong with his chronically lame legs. "It wasn't my idea to come out," he said.

It was a frustrating afternoon and evening for Stengel and the Yankees, who lost the opener 5-4 on Camilo Pascual's first major league home run, a grand slam shot, then blew a ninth-inning lead and dropped the nightcap 6-3 in 15 innings.

Orioles Bow

Baltimore, after winning eight straight, lost 3-2 to Boston. That cost the Orioles a full share of first as the White Sox moved in with a 9-3 and 7-2 sweep over Kansas City. Cleveland dropped into a fourth-place tie with Washington after losing two to Detroit, 6-1 and 3-2.

Nail Orioles At Plate

The White Sox gave Billy Pierce and Early Wynn plenty of support in their sweep, swinging for 15 hits in the opener and 11 in the nightcap.

The Red Sox, who nailed two Orioles runners at the plate, blew a 2-0 lead on a two-run homer by Ron Hansen, who was 4-for-4, in the sixth. Then they cracked the tie in the seventh on a walk, Willie Tasby's single and Ted Williams' infield bouncer.

Rocky Colavito hit a home run in each game for the Tigers, but three unearned runs won the opener, and Charlie Maxwell's fifth-inning home run clinched the nightcap against Cleveland.

Cashtown was dropped into a tie with Arendtsville for first place Sunday when it lost a thrilling 14-inning 6-5 decision to Harney at Cashtown. The Arendtsville-Brushtown game was postponed due to wet grounds.

Bill Solomon pitched the entire game and yielded only seven hits. He walked 11 but managed to squeeze out of several tight situations. Don Bucher started on the mound for Cashtown and was relieved by Ronnie Kump who was charged with the loss when Harney put over its winning tally in the top of the fourteenth inning.

Mummasburg solidified its third place position by clobbering Bonneauville 20-2 on the winner's field.

Mummasburg smashed out 23 hits with Byers, Staley and Coldsmith each collecting four. K. Singley homered for Mummasburg in the second inning when Mummasburg tallied six runs.

Cullison pitched one-hit ball for Mummasburg during his seven-inning stint and walked one while fanning 11. Earl Plank tossed the last two innings, giving up three hits and two unearned runs while striking out three. Withrow pitched the entire game for Bonneauville and struck out four.

The Greenmount-Hunterstown game was also postponed due to wet grounds.

A special league meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the American Legion Home, Baltimore St., to air protested games and decide on postponed games.

EAGLES BEAT RAMS 20 TO 7; STEELERS WIN IN GRID SHOWS

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
The old, established National Football League, preparing for its 41st season of action on the pro pigskin circuit, blitzed the new American League at the attendance gate in their first coast-to-coast test of strength.

Pushing its exhibition program into high gear over the weekend, the NFL drew 108,733 to five contests—an average of over 21,000.

The fledgling AFL, readying an eight-team loop for its opening season, attracted 26,796 for a three-game slate. That's an average of approximately 9,000.

Largest Crowd At LA
The senior circuit also collared the largest crowd, 39,480 turning out at Los Angeles to see the Philadelphia Eagles strike in the second half for a 20-7 victory over the Rams.

In other NFL clashes, Green Bay beat Pittsburgh 20-13 at New Orleans; St. Louis defeated the Dallas Cowboys 20-13 at San Antonio, Tex.; Cleveland whacked the Lions 28-14 at Detroit and the 49ers overwhelmed Washington 31-7 at San Francisco.

The Dallas Texans remained undefeated in AFL pre-season play by whipping Boston 24-14 at Cambridge, Mass., for their third straight win. Oakland rallied for a 23-17 triumph over New York at Sacramento, Calif., and Buffalo thumped Denver 31-14 at Rochester, N. Y.

Fumbles Into Scores
Ex-Ram Norm Van Brocklin passed for two second half touchdowns as the Eagles turned three Los Angeles fumbles into scores.

A 33-yard Van Brocklin to Tom McDonald aerial tied it 7-7 and Bobby Walston's 17-yard field goal in the third period put Philadelphia in front.

A 22-yard touchdown toss from Lamar McHan to Max McGee gave the Packers a 13-6 lead they never relinquished against the Steelers. Paul Hornung, the NFL's scoring champ last year, passed for one Green Bay TD, kicked two field goals and a pair of extra points.

Quarterback M. C. Reynolds drove 1 yard for the go-ahead touchdown as the recently shifted Cardinals, formerly of Chicago, won their first by edging the league's new Dallas entry.

3 Strikes For Plum
Cleveland signal caller Milt Plum heaved three scoring strikes against the Lions as the Browns broke a 10-game losing string on Detroit home grounds.

Lenny Lyles took the opening kickoff, charged 92 yards for a touchdown and the 49ers never were headed Y. A

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

ANOTHER COLEMAN TRAGEDY

The brief biographical sketch of the Rev. Fr. William Augustus Muhlenburg, the beloved of Sarah Hand Coleman, begun in last week's column, is continued at this time.

When Father Muhlenburg returned from England in 1843 he became priest at the Church of the Holy Communion, New York City, which had been built some time before through the generosity of his sister, Mrs. Mary A. Rogers. This church became, in due time, the seat of a highly developed parish life and, in 1852, the Sisterhood of the Holy Cross was founded here. St. Luke's Hospital was another outgrowth. In 1858 Father Muhlenburg gave up his work at the Church of the Holy Communion to devote all of his time and efforts to St. Luke's Hospital. As a part of this work he founded St. John'sland in 1870. This included a church, an orphanage, and a home for the aged, which are still in existence.

Has Malaria Attack

In 1874 Father Muhlenburg suffered his first attack of malaria, and recurring attacks made him realize that the day was not too far distant when he would be starting his last long journey—once again to meet Sarah Coleman, whom he had loved and mourned for more than half a century. On April 8, 1877, the end, which was but the beginning, came peacefully to the aged priest. He died at the hospital he had founded and was buried at St. John'sland—far from the old walled churchyard at Lancaster—the last resting place of Sarah Hand Coleman.

In addition to his many other activities Father Muhlenburg was well-known as a writer of hymns. Two of his best were "I Would Not Live Away" and "Savior Who Thy Flock Art Feeding." Many of his works are included in the present day hymnals.

In the history of a family such as the Colemans, the facts are grim enough but human nature being what it is, these same facts are usually embroidered with a bit of fiction. In this the Colemans were no exception. Robert Coleman would be enraged to know that the historians of today dared to criticize his conduct—particularly insofar as his children were concerned. He was "a law unto himself" and his behavior was above reproach. History, however, is not inclined to deal gently with a tyrant. And Robert Coleman's sins, not only against Ann Caroline and Sarah Hand

Coleman, but against others of his children, have caught up with him.

Had Large Family

Robert and Ann (Old) Coleman had a large family and of all their children only two of the daughters were allowed to marry the men of their choice. That their marriages were successful may be due to the fact that one lived in the western part of the state—the other in Philadelphia. Distance meant something in those days and perhaps Robert Coleman did not get too much opportunity to meddle.

There is a tradition, fairly well authenticated, that another Coleman girl committed suicide because her father refused to permit her marriage. She was found with her throat cut, quite dead, one morning—another victim of Father Coleman's pride. Tradition further states that the girl was buried in a grave that was never marked in the churchyard. The death of Ann Caroline and Sarah Hand Coleman from overdoses of laudanum could have been accidental, but this was obviously suicide — so all was buried as deeply as possible. Not even the name of the unfortunate girl has been handed down.

Grave Inscriptions

Some members of the Coleman family are buried in the graveyard of old Warrick Church, but the great majority are interred back of the chancel at old St. James. The inscription of the table tombs marking these graves are as follows:

"Sacred to the memory of Robert Coleman, Esq., born 4th November, 1748, died 14th August, 1825. To his country, a valuable and venerated citizen, enlarging its wealth and resources by his unremitting industry and skill. In public trusts, he was vigilant and faithful. In his judicial character, discerning, impartial and just; his integrity was inflexible. In social intercourse, open, unaffected and sincere. To charitable and religious institutions, his benevolence was extended with a liberal and willing hand. To modest merit, a friend and protector. Retaining the confidence and affection of his friends for more than half a century, he will be long remembered for his public usefulness and private worth."

today seems to rest on just two pillars. First he was the father of Ann Caroline and Sarah Hand Coleman, and was, as the case may be, directly or indirectly, responsible for their deaths. Secondly, Coleman succeeded the famous Henry William Stiegel as ironmaster at Elizabeth Furnace. The dashing and flamboyant Stiegel must have served Robert Coleman as a "horrible example" of what "living beyond one's means" could lead to.

"Sacred to the memory of Ann Coleman, wife of Robert Coleman, Born May 21st, 1756. Died October 11th, 1844, in the 89th year of her age."

Note: Ann Coleman was the daughter of Cyrus Old, ironmaster, and wife of Robert Coleman. Irish emigrant. It will be noticed that her tomb contains no lengthy epitaph.

"Sacred to the memory of Harriet Coleman, the amiable daughter of Robert and Anne Coleman, who departed this life on the 27th March, 1810, in the 11th year of her age."

Note: This inscription speaks for itself. A younger sister of Ann Caroline Coleman and the older sister of Sarah Hand Coleman. "Sacred to the memory of Robert Coleman Jr., son of Robert and Anne Coleman, who departed this life on the 1st day of February, 1811, in the 23rd year of his age."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

THANKS

I wish to thank the law enforcement officers of McSherrystown and surrounding communities for the splendid cooperation shown me while I held the office of Justice of Peace for the Borough of McSherrystown.

I was reluctant to tender my resignation of this office but a large increase in other activities forced me to do so.

I wish also to express my gratitude to the people of McSherrystown for placing this trust in me for the past five years.

Respectfully

speaks for itself. Robert Jr., was the brother of the unfortunate Ann Caroline, Harriet and Sarah Hand Coleman.

"Within this silent repository repose the remains of James Coleman, son of Robert and Ann Coleman. Born at Elizabeth Furnace September 5th, 1784; died there September 9th, 1831. Beloved and regretted by all his relatives and friends. A kind and affectionate husband and father; but 'tis vain, 'tis needless to record his worth. He who best knows it will reward it."

Note: Another Coleman son—apparently one who lived to marry. Nothing is known pertaining to his family.

"Sacred to the memory of Thomas Bird Coleman, son of Robert and Ann Coleman. Born at Elizabeth Furnace, September 4th, 1794. Died at the residence of his mother, in this city, September 10th, 1836."

Note: Thomas Bird Coleman was named for a famous Colonial ironmaster, Thomas Bird. Beyond these facts nothing is known pertaining to this member of the Coleman family.

Next week the notes on the Coleman family will be concluded in this column and the historical and genealogical study of the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard will be resumed.

L. S. PERSUN DIES

TWO KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

FRANKLIN, Pa. (AP) — A four-seater airplane crashed and exploded on a farm near this northern Pennsylvania town Sunday, killing two Minneapolis men. The victims were Abraham H. Davis, 34, and Charles F. Peckham, 27. Local Federal Aviation research and statistics for the State Revenue Department, died Saturday at his home in nearby Linglestown. He had been employed in the department since 1914.

Surviving are his widow, a son, a daughter, a brother and seven grandchildren.

Authority investigators said Davis was an official of the United Davis Wastepaper Co., both of Minneapolis.

Cause of the crash was not known immediately.

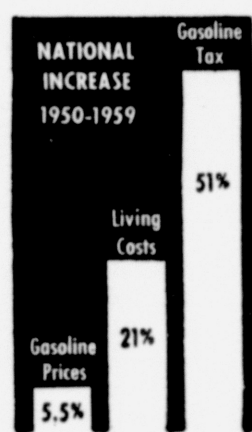

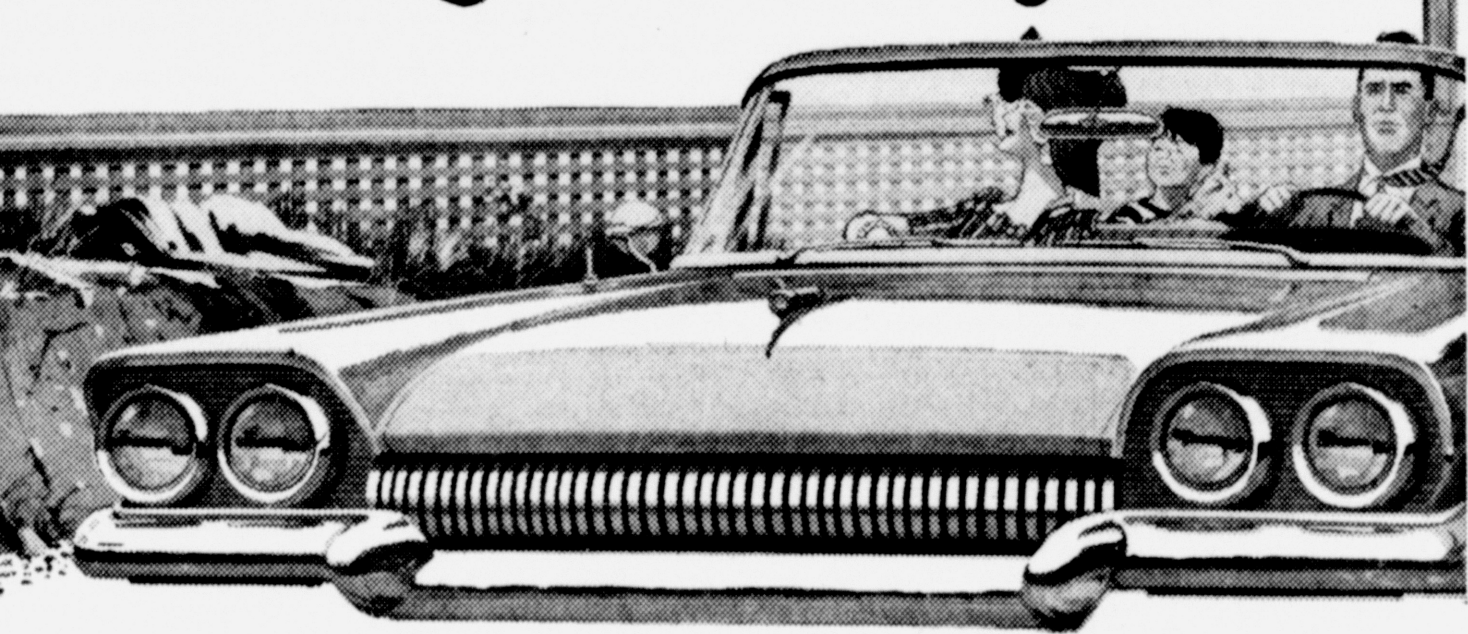

Parts of the plane were scattered over a half-mile area. The wings were found about 200 yards to each side of the main part of the wreckage.

Coroner M. C. Dinberg of Venango County said it was impossible to determine which man was the pilot. He said the plane was en route from Minneapolis to Teterboro, N. J.

One of the smallest capital cities in the world is Canberra, Australia, which has only 35,000 people.

IN PENNSYLVANIA...

You pay 90¢ tax on 10 gallons of gasoline

Gasoline taxes up 51% in ten years

Looking at it another way, in the last ten years gasoline taxes have skyrocketed 51%—yet the price of gasoline itself has risen only 5.5% during the same period.

$67 a year for gasoline taxes! Gallon by gallon, these taxes add up to a lot of money. Each year the average motor vehicle owner in this state pays $67 for gasoline taxes alone. That's just a few dollars less than the average week's pay for most people!

In Pennsylvania, car owners pay 90¢ tax on every 10 gallons of gasoline they buy.

Does a tax this high—on a basic commodity like gasoline—really make sense? Gasoline taxes across the nation amount to a 50% sales tax—and that's five times as high as the tax rate on luxuries like diamonds and mink coats.

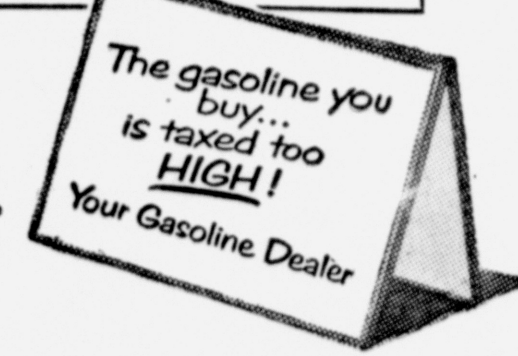

How did gasoline taxes get so high? Well, since World War II, there have been three increases in the federal gasoline tax alone. This brought the Federal tax to 4 cents a gallon, in addition to the State tax of 5 cents a gallon.

Your gasoline dealer—who must collect these taxes from you—feels that gasoline taxes are much too high. More and more, thinking people are coming to agree. What do you think?

HIGHWAYS AND GASOLINE TAXES

Your gasoline retailer, naturally, favors construction of the roads that the motoring public needs. He believes in fair and reasonable taxation for this purpose but feels that taxes on gasoline have now reached unreasonably high levels. He also believes that all special taxes on the motorist should be used only for highway purposes. Yet last year, out of every automobile tax dollar collected by the Federal Government from highway users, more than 40 cents went for non-highway purposes. If these automotive tax revenues were dedicated for highway purposes, there would be no need for the latest increase in the federal gasoline tax.

BOUNCE VOICES OFF SATELLITE VIA TELEPHONE

HOLMDEL, N. J. (AP)—Scientists talking across the heavens with the help of the Echo I satellite today held their first conversation with standard telephones.

The latest experiment in bouncing sound waves off America's newest space traveler began at 12:30 a.m. when William Victor, a research consultant on the Echo I project, picked up a telephone in Pasadena, Calif.

Victor telephoned the Jet Propulsion Laboratories in Goldstone, Calif., and asked to be connected to the Bell Telephone Laboratories here via the 10-story aluminum-coated balloon that circles the earth every two hours at a height of 1,000 miles.

Sent Via Echo

The call was plugged into the transmitter and sent via Echo I to Holmdel, from Holmdel to Bell's central switchboard in Middletown and back to Holmdel where it rang a telephone.

The instrument was picked up by William C. Jakes Jr., research director for the Echo project at Holmdel.

"Hello, Bill," Victor said. "How do I sound?"

Loud And Clear

Jakes told him his voice was coming in loud and clear.

"You sound as if you're only 40 miles away," Victor said.

Since Friday, when the balloon was launched into space, scientists at Holmdel and Goldstone have been exploring the different kinds of radio sound waves the shiny aluminum surface can mirror.

Taped Recording

Sunday the voice of a scientist at the Naval Research Laboratory, Stump Neck, Md., was bounced off Echo I to Holmdel and hurled back into space for another bounce to Goldstone.

Later Sunday a taped instrumental recording of "America the Beautiful" was similarly sent from Maryland to New Jersey to California. Sunday night two scientists at Goldstone held a four-way conversation with two scientists here.

The laboratories have been transmitting primarily at night because it is easier to spot the balloon.

A conversation can only take place when Echo I is within the horizon of all the points involved.

Cashman Reunion Re-elects Ray Epley

More than 100 descendants of Johan Christian (Kirschenmann) Cashman, a 1767 German immigrant, re-elected Ray Epley, New Oxford, president at their thirtieth annual reunion Sunday afternoon at the "Pines" St. Paul's Church and community hall near New Chester.

Others elected were: Dr. W. A. R. Bell, first vice president; William Cashman Sr., New Cumberland, 2nd vice president; Miss Vergie Musser, Gettysburg, secretary; assistant secretary, Pauline Hartlaub, Gettysburg R. 5; treasurer, Edgar Weaver, Gettysburg; genealogist, Arthur Weaver; historian, Rev. Charles Shull, Frederick; pianist, Mrs. Myrtle Bell, Frederick.

A supplement to the original Cashman history and genealogy was released and a report given on Cashman vital statistics for the past year.

Prizes were awarded to the oldest lady present, Mrs. Lora Miller, aged 92 years, of Frederick; youngest person, 5 months, Cathy Plasterer, Middletown; couple married shortest time, Mr. and Mrs. William Cashman Jr., 6 years; and person traveling long-distance, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cashman, of Clay City, Ind., are descendants of Jacob Martin Cashman who emigrated from Adams County before 1790 into Virginia and Kentucky. A collection of $34.34 was received to defray expenses.

The 1961 Reunion has tentatively been scheduled for the second Sunday in August at the Pines.

URGES EARLY ATTENTION TO AIR POLLUTION

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Private industry can save itself much expense and communities much annoyance by making early efforts to prevent air pollution, a state health official said today.

Victor H. Sussman, chief of the Health Department's Air Pollution Control Section, made the comment in remarks prepared for the ninth annual four-day state health conference here.

He said industries should work out air pollution problems before they go ahead and construct plants. Otherwise, it could produce heavy expense later.

Costs More Later

He noted industries have found it costs more to alter plants after they are built than it does to provide proper air pollution devices when buildings are being planned and erected.

He said the department now is studying air pollution problems in several communities and will report its findings to the State Air Pollution Control Commission later.

Pollution Control Commission later.

More than 1,000 physicians, nurses and public health specialists are expected to attend the conference being held on Pennsylvania State University's campus.

Harry A. DeWire of Lewistown, a regional sanitary engineer for the Health Department, reported on Johnstown's multimillion-dollar sewage treatment plant project. He said the facility, when completed, will serve 133,000 persons and will eliminate numerous health hazards in the area.

Sunday Dr. Charles L. Wilbur Jr., state health secretary, praised the work of county health departments in the state. In a statement he called for establishment of more county units in rural and urban areas.
